Dragons at Christmas - Dundee City Council at it again!!!!

The city council's marketing theme for this year's Christmas Light Night is "The Year of the Dragon." Do you want to see this major event in November say something about the Year of the Lord – the coming of Christ at Christmas? This is a major opportunity for the churches to reach out with the Good News to thousands of Dundonians of all ages, and people from the surrounding area who flock to the city centre for the Christmas Light Night festivities.

WE NEED YOUR HELP. The Dundee Nativity, now in its third year, is a great way for churches to present the Gospel story in public by supporting a spectacular venture in open air theatre.

This year, the traditional costumed Nativity play will be paralleled by a contemporary story that will highlight various social issues in present day Dundee. Not just a cute story about a baby and a donkey long ago, but God's dramatic intervention in the world which is still of vital relevance today.

The Dundee Nativity 2012

An inter-church project, in association with Work Place Chaplaincy
Scotland

Now in its third year, the Dundee Nativity is a great opportunity to present the real meaning of Christmas to the crowds in the city centre at the Christmas Lights event. We have an exciting new script, combining the traditional costumed Nativity play and a contemporary Dundee story. The play takes place on Friday 23rd November 2012 at 7.15 pm, in a great open air venue, and it's fun to take part!

SINGERS

We are looking for people who enjoy singing, but more importantly, who have bundles of enthusiasm! Now's your chance to sing with an African gospel choir and band!

ACTORS

No experience required. We are looking for a large cast aged 16 to 96 (and a baby to play Jesus!) Artistic director Suzanne Lofthus, who also directs the Edinburgh Nativity and the Glasgow Passion, will coach us in our roles.

STAGE HANDS

We also need a small team of people to set up and dismantle the scenery, and to organise props.

REHEARSALS

Rehearsals are at Meadowside St Paul's Church Hall, 114 Nethergate, Dundee, each Friday evening from 7 till 9 pm, beginning on Friday 28th September.
