MARY'S MEALS BACKPACK APPEAL

Once again this year we are hoping you will support us in the Backpack appeal. Last year we were again able to send over 100 backpacks to children in Malawi. The Backpack appeal aims to provide the basic tools which will enable the children of Malawi to gain an education. We know that money is tight at this time but if you feel you can help in any way with donations of equipment (pencils, pens, rulers, rubbers, notebooks, backpacks etc) or money please speak to either Trish Gray or Ben Johnston. As the children return to school on Tuesday, perhaps when buying equipment for their return you could buy an extra set of pens or an extra jotter etc to donate to our appeal. Thank you for all the support.

HOLY HOUR for VOCATIONS

St Andrew's Cathedral - Sunday from 4.00 to 5.00

To pray for Deacon Ninian Doohan who will be ordained to the priesthood on Monday by Bishop Stephen in the Cathedral at 7.00 p.m. All are invited to the Ordination Mass.

Best wishes to all our young people starting in Primary 1 or Secondary 1, or just returning to school after the holidays. May the school year be richly blessed for all of us.

FUND RAISING FOR FATHER BEATUS 10.00 to 12 noon

The Summer Fayre is next Saturday. I hope you are all busy working on items for our Arts and Crafts stalls! In addition to arts and crafts, we are hoping there will be a Bottle Stall, a raffle, cake and candy stall, jam and chutney stall, books/CDs and DVD stall and a Silent Auction. Tea, coffee and cake will be provided for the cost of the £2 entrance fee. Tickets are available today.

Raising funds for Father Beatus is the Parish Project for the Year of Mercy so we hope you will all give us the support we need to make this fund raiser a success. We are looking for all kinds of donations, arts and crafts -knitting, sewing, cross stitch, paintings, jam, cake and candy, raffle prizes, books DVDs etc.

Volunteers to help on the day serving and making tea etc would be very welcome.

Even if you are not in the least bit crafty we hope you will all come along and support Father Beatus and at the same time get to know your fellow parishioners.

A box is at the back of the church into which all donations can be placed.

At the Summer Fayre we will have a silent auction for a print donated to us by a local artist. The title of the print is "The Homecoming, 17th" (17th Fairway, St Andrews, Scotland) by Fiona Haldane.

Fiona is recognised as one of the leading pastel landscape artists in Scotland. She has exhibited with several prominent galleries and earlier this year she had her 4th solo show in a Broughty Ferry gallery. We are very grateful to Fiona for this gift as we are to all our parishioners who have so generously given to this cause. Enjoy the day!

The latest news from Fr Beatus

Your support is requested for next Saturday's Fayre.

Greetings from South Sudan

The security situation in Wau has improved, but people are overwhelmed by fear and uncertainty. A heavy fight that erupted in the capital Juba over the past few days has given another dimension of South Sudan. The question remains: Who is behind the violence? This question is all the more curious given that president salva Kiir and First Vice- President Riek Machar were in the government of national unity at the time fighting erupted.

I am doing my best, working hard to improve the life of our students here. As you might have known that our school was greatly affected by the war, for this was the place where government forces and rebels were fighting. Most of our students fled in multiple directions, including to nearby villages and across the border to Sudan. I have lost about 400 students and nobody can trace them. It is a hard reality. Most of our teachers have gone to other countries. It proves difficult to run the school without enough teachers and having lots of students wounded psychologically. Furthermore, some students have lost parents, relatives and guardians. Furthermore, other students have fears about personal safety at school, or on the way to and from the school. We have a lot to do to re-establish our school and revive the confidence and hope for our students.

South Sudan can break one's heart. Observing from afar, I am tempted to throw up my hands and think there will never be peace in a region that has known war for so long. Certainly I am frustrated, heartbroken with this setback. However, this is not time to give up. Already I hear comments almost of surprise: 'You are still here? The truth is we know there are some dangers but we are not going to be frightened off by what might happen. Our continue presence gives our students and wider people hope. They see that we really are here to accompany them on their painful journey.

In fact, we do not share all their pains. We can still afford daily food while many are hungry. We have secure brick compounds in which we live while so many people are in fragile grass huts or are displaced from their humble homes. We have back up and outside resources; the little that many people possessed have been taken from them by soldiers.

Please keep praying for me and our students who have been greatly affected by skirmishes.

With best wishes

Fr. Beatus Mauki
